

2017-18 SEMINAR SERIES

The Seminar Series, conducted in cooperation with community organizations, is designed to address the root causes for many of today's public health issues and to develop concrete strategies to address them.

Time: Dinner 5:30 Presentation: 5:45 to 7:45PM

On-line registration is required www.bridgingthegaps.info

Pre-registration is required.

Time: Dinner 5:30 Presentation: 5:45 to 7:30PM

September 26: Public Health in Philadelphia

Thomas Farley, MD, MPH, Commissioner of Health, Philadelphia Department of Public Health
Kate's Place, Project HOME, 1929 Sansom St, 19103

October 19: Harm Reduction 101

Jose Benitez, MSW, Prevention Point
Kate's Place, Project HOME, 1929 Sansom St, 19103

November 14: Both Sides of the Wall: Challenges and Opportunities in Health Care for Incarcerated and Recently Released Populations

Arthur Brewer, MD, Rutgers University Correctional Health Care & New Jersey Department of Corrections
Kate's Place, Project HOME, 1929 Sansom St, 19103

December 7: Maintaining Frail Older Adults in the Community Using the PACE Model

Ingrid Sidirov, MSN, RN, LIFE
Kate's Place, Project HOME, 1929 Sansom St, 19103

January 23: Supporting the Health and Well-being of Transgender Youth: Perspectives from the CHOP Gender and Sexuality Development Clinic

Nadia Dowshen, MD, MSHP
Kate's Place, Project HOME, 1929 Sansom St, 19103

February 15: Navigating Emergency Medical Assistance: Health Rights of the Uninsured

Vincent J. Zarro, MD, PhD and Maripat Pileggi, JD
Kate's Place, Project HOME, 1929 Sansom St, 19103

March 21: Addressing Adolescent Risk: Building on Strength

Kenneth Ginsburg, MD, MEd, Hugh Organ, and Covenant House Staff
LOCATION: Covenant House, 31 E. Armat St, 19144

April 17: Providing Health Care for Newly Arrived Refugees

Rachael Truchil, MD, MPH
Kate's Place, Project HOME, 1929 Sansom St, 19103